

14 - Mary

She wasn't a queen or an empress. She gave birth to her child in strange surroundings and raised him in exile. She knew what it was to be a widow, a refugee, the mother of a condemned criminal. Mary, the Mother of Jesus, was simply a woman who believed and hoped and loved enough to say "Yes," so the Tree of Jesse could bloom.

14 - Mary

She wasn't a queen or an empress. She gave birth to her child in strange surroundings and raised him in exile. She knew what it was to be a widow, a refugee, the mother of a condemned criminal. Mary, the Mother of Jesus, was simply a woman who believed and hoped and loved enough to say "Yes," so the Tree of Jesse could bloom.

