

Jesse

8 - Jesse

When the prophet Samuel went looking for a new king for Israel, Jesse, a devoted and faithful man, proudly trotted out his fine-looking older sons. But Samuel chose David, the youngest son, a shepherd boy, to receive God's favor – reminding Jesse that God looks at things differently than we do, that little sprouts can grow to be great trees.

8 - Jesse

When the prophet Samuel went looking for a new king for Israel, Jesse, a devoted and faithful man, proudly trotted out his fine-looking older sons. But Samuel chose David, the youngest son, a shepherd boy, to receive God's favor – reminding Jesse that God looks at things differently than we do, that little sprouts can grow to be great trees.

